Dr. Edith A. Copley, Professor of Music and Director of Choral Studies at Northern Arizona University, conducts the highly acclaimed Shrine of the Ages Choir and teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in conducting and graduate choral literature. The Shrine of the Ages Choir has performed at state, division and national conferences of American Choral Directors Association and the National Association for Music Education (formerly MENC). NAU choral ensembles under her direction have toured internationally to Western Europe, the People's Republic of China, Australia, and New Zealand. In addition to her responsibilities at NAU, Dr. Copley conducts the Master Chorale of Flagstaff, an auditioned 100-voice community chorus that performs major choral/orchestral works each spring with the Flagstaff Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Copley received her Master of Music and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees in choral conducting from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and a Bachelor of Arts degree in music education from Luther College. An ACDA life member, she has received numerous honors, including Arizona Music Educator of the Year in 2004 and the Arizona ACDA Outstanding Choral Director Award in 2007.

Gayle McCullough, All-State Honor Choir accompanist, is in her 38th year of teaching choral and general music, 35 of those years at North Central Jr/Sr High School in Farmersburg, Indiana. She completed both her undergraduate and graduate degrees in music education at Indiana State University and has completed post-graduate workshop courses through several universities in topics ranging from music technology to teaching class guitar.

In addition to teaching, McCullough stays busy as a church musician and with freelance accompanying engagements. She has been the accompanist for the Indiana All-State Honor Choir for a number of years, and is a proud member of the Indiana State Teachers Association, the American Choral Directors Association, and the National Association for Music Education (formerly MENC).

JOIN US IN SUPPORTING INDIANA MUSIC

The Indiana Music Educators Association (IMEA) is pleased to again host the performance of the Indiana Choral Directors Association All-State Honor Choir at this year's IMEA professional development conference.

IMEA and ICDA continue to be proactive in support of music education at the state level, in your community, and in your school. IMEA and ICDA invite you to join in this support—to encourage those schools, administrators, and music educators who have strong and developing programs in their schools; to assist those who are struggling and seeking help in strengthening their programs; and to support those facing cutbacks. We urge you to join us in this effort! You are a vital link in this process. Parents, friends, and taxpayers are powerful allies in local communities and have a role which no one else can play.
